

BETTER NOW

A-Reece

Yeah

Nah, you don't have to pity me (Pity me)
Everythin' about you fake, you full of treachery
You used to tell me that my enemy's your enemy
But all that shit was trickery
I'm onto you
Should be ashamed, I used to honour you
I wouldn't call it, I should've known that
You so atrocious, no one controls you
Doin' the most, you get on your phone and give 'em a show
But nobody knows you, the way I know you (Yeah)
I wouldn't call it, I should've known it
I don't condone this, you had your moment
Doin' the most, I thought you were loyal
Guess I don't know you, the way they know you

Like we were never niggas
Niggas, niggas
Niggas, niggas
Used to be my nigga (Yeah)
Nigga, nigga, nigga (Haha, yeah)

Yeah, yeah
I ain't tryna hang with niggas
I swear up to this day I still don't get it
Callin' it a friendship when you treated it like business
Stop actin' like it's love, you know it isn't
Shit ain't goin' back to what it was, so just admit it
I know I might be mixin' these emotions with the blanco
But fuck friends, I'm better off alone as far as I know
Keep the same energy, I'm keepin' my integrity
I know somebody out there feelin' me
But I swear to God

You don't have to pity me (Never)
Everything about you fake, you full of treachery (For real)
You use to tell me that my enemy's your enemy
But all that shit was trickery
I'm onto you
Should be ashamed, I used to honour you
I wouldn't call it, I should've known that
You so atrocious, no one controls you
Doin' the most, you get on your phone and give 'em a show
But nobody knows you, the way I know you (Yeah)
I wouldn't call it, I should've known it
I don't condone this, you had your moment
Doin' the most, I thought you were loyal
Guess I don't know you, the way they know you

Like we were never niggas
Niggas, niggas
Niggas, niggas
Used to be my nigga (Yeah)
Nigga, nigga, nigga (Haha, yeah)
