

DICHOTOMY

A-Reece

You take the ring from your finger (Yeah)
You take the ring from your finger (Yeah)
You take the ring from your finger, you don't know what you're doing
You don't know what you're doing to your...

Heartbreaks, court cases and infidelity
Allegations, long faces at couples therapy
Divorce papers, lawyers, community of property
Child custody, dichotomy
Nothing lasts forever like monogamy
Such an act of mockery
Throwing in the towel
Forgot you said your vows
You failed to make your grandmother proud
No longer the head of the house

It isn't worth keeping another secret
She decided that she's leaving
Took off the ring and said that you could keep it Went from sharing a family meal to changing the family will
From codependent to co-parenting the kids
Shit is real
Pharmaceutical pills could never relieve the pain
You don't even look at her the same
30 something years down the drain
Just because you couldn't change your ways
Just because couldn't stay away
Just because you
Just because you didn't change

You don't know what you're doing
You take the ring from your finger
You don't know what you're doing to yourself
