

DOTTED LINEZ

A-Reece

Another day, a new debate
'Bout who's the richest, who's the realest, who is fake
Who to love and who to hate
That one bought a brand new car
He moved into a new estate
That one's always at the club
She always got some shit to say
Is it power, is it fame?
Will he make it in the game?
Will he make it out the hood?
Will he still remain the same?
Will they love him like they should?
Will it take the pain away?
When all he ever wanted was for you to play his fuckin' tape
All he ever wanted was to meet his idols face-to-face
Weed and music my escape
I control what I create
I don't take advice from niggas who don't know how much it takes to get to where I am today
Never had to play it safe
I took a risk and made a change
I cannot go out a slave, that ain't who my mama raised
I was just a dotted line away from being trapped inside the cage, I can't go out this way
Can't go out this way
Seen it all, I seen 'em fall
I can't go out this way
Told myself I can't go out this way, yeah
Right up to this day
Til I make it to the heaven's gate
(Can't go out this way)
(Told myself I can't go out this way)
