

Everybody Hates Reece

A-Reece

Yeah, 16:06 shit
Make a wish

Yeah

Economically I find it very promotional speaking on niggas
What's the point if you speaking on him and he ain't with us
Or never been, what do you benefit?
In my opinion that's gossip, you cannot be that emotional handling this business
We can be more specific and take this so-called-rappers for instance
Who find it fitting for a friendship when they need assistance
I have my limits, I'm keeping my distance
Not convinced by the sudden spirit they keep uplifting
Sometimes I wish I never left my city
Sometimes I wish I knew that I was fucking other niggas bitches
Way before "Meanwhile In Honeydew" views got to a million
Maybe things would've a little beat different, who know?

Sometimes I wish real life had GTA cheat codes
(You know)

Yeah, life of a young Tarantino
I'm death-prove shots ricochet, when they shoot
Shots pierce right through the heart when I do
You do exactly what you're told, I'm doing what I got to
I got niggas waiting on me, then tell them I got you
I'm jump-starting careers
I noticed I'm well aware that I've been doing this for years
You played yourself thinking the game is playing fair
For survival I'm well prepared, in fact overprepared
I'm like one of your biggest fears, consider me top tier
I'm fly, you mid air
Top 5, you're not there
Mob ties with close friends
This shit does not end

16:06 shit, nigga, real shit
