

Intentions Interlude

A-Reece

Yeah, just an interlude about how I'm into you
You know what I mean?

I don't wanna say you got it
You know everything about it
What I'm looking for is timeless
And I'm hoping I can find it
Baby, you're my only option
Yeah, I got a lil' mileage
But I know you're down to ride
I know everything about it
Everyday I get reminded
I just want you by my side
I just want to be unbothered
I would never be a coward
I would never take this all for granted
If I'm being honest
I just wanna get inside you, girl
I'm tired of thinking about it, yeah

I said this is just an interlude about how I'm into you
Yeah, yeah (Highest level of inspiration)

I don't wanna say you got it
You know everything about it
I know how to keep a promise
You just gotta to keep it popping
Let me treat you like a goddess
Yeah, I got a lil' mileage
But for you I'd kill my pride
I know everything about it
Everyday I get reminded
I just want you by my side
I just want to be unbothered
I would never be a coward
I would never take this all for granted
If I'm being honest
I just wanna get inside you, girl
I'm tired of thinking about it, yeah

(Feel me smoke to this, yeah)
