

King Shit

A-Reece

In the event of something happening to me
There is something I would like you all to see
In the event of something happening to me
There is something I would like you all to see

Bona, now I ain't got half of Khuli's buzz
That's the reason I ain't stopping
Came in the game now I'm everybody's problem
We are not the same, I'm in everybody's market
It's Reece in the room, I don't care if it is [?], nigga
I'm taking over summers for a living, I'm a threat
You should know the underdogs ain't kidding
The king is in attendance and [?] with all the winners
I'm counting down the seconds you niggas are close to missing
This fashion shit is getting straight to my nerves
And this passion, bitch, you hear the usage of words
Empirical, bringing to you [?] get thinking a little
I'm lyrical, sonny, yeah genius, hao phale ka selo
Ever since ke le a fetus I've been killing features (That's impossible)
See what happens when you get seizures
Lying nigga, I'm good as hell
Feeling my self flowing similar to wells
They wishing a nigga fell
Well, that ain't happening, back to the rap again
You buffled, I know, the boy is too complex
And higher than a bird, a plane or blood pressure

We working days to cut cheddar for family
We swerving lanes performing in late nights, performing at night
And I ain't scared of AKA, Reason, I'm massing them
I'm here to make zaka-zaka ka rapity
The business, don't under estimate 'cause of the age, nigga

In the event of something happening to me
There is something I would like you all to see
In the event of something happening to me
There is something I would like you all to see
