

Hah
I know
Damn

You niggas really hit rock bottom, you should be some Archaeologists Destined to be at the top, it's all divine providence
You pocket watchin' niggas know what time it is Hate to be the one to kill your confidence, but, all you niggas coward dice
Might have came to prominence in the game
But you can't even tour nine provinces, what a shame
Guess it means I remain, the best in the continent
I guess it means you remain, slightly anonymous It's really astonishing how you gassed off compliments that attempt to make a nigga look powerless Comin' from niggas who tried to leech us but ain't got nothin' out of it
Ironically I'm the one who got under your skin
You don't hate me now, nigga, you been Wouldn't say my name now, not even on your first interview then Imagine gettin' insulted because you questioned my pen
You should tell your home boys 'bout your friend
The one who put you on and said he got your back when you decided to quit school to be just like him too
The one you took to see your mom and told her that shit is cool, and I'm down to look out for you
But now all a sudden I coerced you, it isn't true
It's crazy, who woulda knew?
I hear that on Youtube, from someone you wouldn't know if it wasn't because of me
The one who said "Fuck 1000 Degreez" and called you niggas some thieves
Even just said the crew grew apart 'cause I planted the seed
I guess that makes me the person that you want me to be Jealousy, envy and greed is what you got, don't try and project it on me
Nah, don't try to project it on me
When you look at your reflection, dawg, what do you see?
I've known you way before you thought about writin' to beats
So how the fuck did you and I end up having this beef?
I can't believe this how you actually want it to be It's not how you makin' it seem
'Cause this shit is really that deep
Right? (Yeah)
This shit is really that deep

I know this shit is really that deep
Thought you would take the high road but it's really that steep
You playin' games so let 'em commence
I know you desperately need to win
You call yourself the prince
I know you dyin' to be the king, so go ahead and kill him then (Yeah)

Y'all can go ahead and kill him then (Right)
