

More Than Enough

A-Reece

(Right)

Yeah

Yeah

That's why we get high and say "Fuck the police!"
I was in a holding cell just for holding four Gs
Searching me because you gotta wait for this cheese
You ain't checking for no weapons looking under my seat
Hold up... huh
Let me burn it in peace
Watch the ash turn white looking like my ice freeze
Hold up... huh
A smoker knows what I mean
When I say I got gelato it is never ice-cream
Same shit, just a different strain
Could've said same shit, just a different day
But I'm doing multiple different things in a single day
You're dealing with a heavyweight
I'm outside, tell security to barricade
One time, tell the DJ let the song play
Let me ride on the beat
How she ride me to sleep
Pussy like nicotine, honey and vanilla cream
I just might lick it clean
(I just might, I just might)

We can take it slow if you wanna
Put you in a song if you wanna
We came to smoke if you wanna
We can do it if you wanna
But there's more than marijuana for you

We can take it slow if you wanna
Put you in a song if you wanna
We came to smoke if you wanna
We can do it if you wanna
But there's more than marijuana for you

Thick thighs, slim waist, small afro
Met a girl backstage after a rap show
Heard she digging my bars like El Chapo
When I see her tunnel, she'll need to see the cashflow
Her body is a sculpture, a work of art
But don't ever get committed, she could hurt your heart
Left a trail of broke and broken men
And already in your pocket as soon as you let the flirting start
It's a cold world and love is even colder (So cold)
So it's fuck love, I shrug it off my shoulder
Rather tell a girl "Come over"
We can smoke up and lay up on the sofa, stretch her, sex yoga
Nice and physical, quite reciprocal
And it's more intense after we light medicinal (Light it)
Never fold, keep it straight with a G
And I may keep you as mine and even pay for your fees, B

We can take it slow if you wanna
Put you in a song if you wanna

We came to smoke if you wanna
We can do it if you wanna
But there's more than marijuana for you

We can take it slow if you wanna
Put you in a song if you wanna
We came to smoke if you wanna
We can do it if you wanna
But there's more than marijuana for you
