A-Reece

It is what it is, it was what it was

Yeah... Hey...

Confrontation is confirmation

I can't make a decision just based on observation

Cause when your energy's off I need a conversation

But you're too comfortable with strangers for validation

Yeah... I think I'm losing patience

You niggas get too comfortable

But no more Mr. Nice Guy that shit insufferable

I choose violence so fuck being vulnerable

Cause when I chose silence man that shit had me uncomfortable

And if I'm being honest dawg, that shit is not recoverable

Don't go hating yourself tryna be loveable

Don't go catching on feelings, acting untouchable

Don't ignore your gut feeling always being gullible

Cause lately to me it seems like loyalty is adjustable nigga

Yeah... But we move right?

Sad generation, all 'em Twitter Likes don't prove you right

Being alive sucks till you come close to losing life

So choose life

Cause if it doesn't hurt, then it's not love

That shit always comes with the pain nigga, package deal

Gotta keep it moving though baby, otherwise you never heal

One thing consistent is the karma wheel

That's just me, that's how I feel

I never fake a smile I just to uh...

No more complaints about the industry from me

Fuck talent, fuck hardwork nigga just pay the fee

You got kiss the right asses don't be like me

Get your fake smile game up nigga, you wanna eat?

Cause every time you check the line up, it's on repeat

She's gotta sacrifice her ass too, just to get a seat

Ma'fuckers don't understand man, this shit gets deep

That's why niggas get coked up and they can't sleep

Imagine staring at the mirror and you can't see you

Just a brand that you built up to try and feed you

And the brands are watching nigga so you can't speak truth

No fumbling the bag so you can't be you

Then you're the reason why niggas wanna be like you

They figure doing it like you is guaranteed Ws

Then it's You versus self like an Ang Lee flick

And then you realize all that shit don't mean shit

Yeah,

Confrontation is confirmation

I'm not surprised that it ended with no communication

I'm just confused how you made it about remuneration

Then took it personal just to protect your reputation

It's all a simulation,

This whole time I avoided making a speculation

This whole time I've been waiting to have a conversation

But you would rather pay lawyers to make a mediation

Yeah,

Tribulations and trials,

Suddenly you demanding exaggerated amounts

Got me thinking I should've left solo back in the south

You niggas never deserved to step foot in my momma house
Can't believe they switched the narrative around
Everybody said I'm the reason the crew was falling out
When I'm the reason why certain niggas could put an album out
And I'm the reason why everybody's familiar with them now
And everybody would vouch
I did it even though the industry wouldn't allow
I guess I'll only get my flowers when I'm buried in the ground
Unfortunately it's too late to reconcile
Whatever's in the past, I'm leaving it all behind
I took a wrong turn cause I wasn't reading the signs
Took me four years to figure all of it out
It was only holding me back tryna hold you niggas down
I said what I said,
Regretted it over the years
It is what it is,
One bucket and two tears
I did what I did,
That's the reason I'm still here
But like Jimmy Hoffa, they want me to disappear
These young niggas treating my verses like souvenirs
You downplaying my story just because they told you theirs
All I wanted was to make that list,
Until I realised that all that shit don't mean shit
