I'm living my life
And one time is enough my nigga if you're doing it right... yeah (if you're doing it right)
I'm living my life
And one time my nigga is enough my nigga if you're doing it right

Two thousand and 21, I'm in the light
You making a living, I'm living my life
Do what I like and I'm doing it right
She doing me at the end of the night
Beating it up like she put up a fight
She don't believe in the hype,
She only believe what I write
I only believe what I see in my sight
I'm only saying this once ain't nobody fooling me twice
I'm making the rarri interior white
You know that will if I told you I might (yeah)

Caught up between the dark & the light
Make up for lost time then I'll make up my mind
I'm guessing it's true, you search and you find
It's all up to you, the timing is now, you cannot rewind
If you rolling with me, the universe threw the dice
If you rolling with me, it's to (two) a paradise (pair-of-dice)
And I heard it before, I get it, you right
How could you walk in my shoes, I take flight
Living my life

And one time is enough my nigga if you're doing it right... yeah (if you're doing it right)
I'm living my life

Back on my shit again
Taking my name in vain, I'm under their skin again
Yeah, back on my shit again
Remember they wanted me out of the game,
I'm back for the win again
Yeah, back on my shit again!
Rapping like I just got off the meds again
This one for the niggas who wanted to see me dead
Coming alive, you niggas is better off killing the beat instead...
Back on my shit again!
(Shit again)

Still on my shit, my nigga I came prepared
Wake up & bake with my brother, go out to go get it then break the bread
I gotta eat cause I'm from a city where niggas will feed you lead
Yeah... back on my shit again
This for that nigga that wanted to see me dead
Never been timid, next time when you see me I'm grippin' the heater, yeah
I'm still up in it my nigga, no quitting, I still got a reason, yeah
Huh... I'm back on my shit again
Still up to something, I ain't finished yet
I'm back on my shit again
Still gotta, finish yeah
