Yeah, tough luck, tough luck
Yeah
Yeah
Yeah
Tough luck
Ok

Yeah, tough luck
Yeah, they call it hate
But I look at it as tough love, yeah
Somebody had to put you in your place
Don't you ever get it fucked up
On me, try somebody else don't put your stress on me
Everybody else put respect on me
And if you're down bad, nigga, tough luck

He throwing dirt up on my name 'cause he washed up
I remember praying for a lump sum
Now me and big bro eating, that's a pot luck
Record labels couldn't hush us
I'm the one who got your favourite rapper star-struck
I'm the reason why the city's even up one
Bitch, you ain't gotta ask where I come from

Tough luck
Yeah, they call it hate
But I look at it as tough love, yeah
Somebody had to put you in your place
Don't you ever get it fucked up
On me, try somebody else don't put your stress on me
Everybody else put respect on me
And if you're down bad, nigga, tough luck

Something like a canvas the way I done brushed up
Might fuck up all your plans, nigga, shut up
Me and lil' bro on a record, that's a thumbs up
Trying to get big bucks just to get it summed up
I'm still top tier meaning I'm stuck up
We run the city now we're aiming for the world cup
Niggas wanna rap now, that's when I packed up
You motherfuckers better hate this
You're lucky that you even made the placement
You preaching to the choir without a congregation
This shit is not a verse, it's an affidavit
Yeah, enter the dragon of entertainment
Underrated much, maybe that's an understatement
Rappers went house now the game is vacant
What do y'all expect from these double agents, huh?

Yeah, tough luck
Yeah, they call hate
But I look at it as tough love, yeah
Somebody had to put you in your place
Don't you ever get it fucked up
On me, try somebody else don't put your stress on me
Everybody else put respect on me
And if you're down bad, nigga, tough luck

Yeah, tough luck
Yeah, they call it hate
But I look at it as tough love, yeah
Somebody had to put you in your place
Don't you ever get it fucked up
On me, try somebody else don't put your stress on me
Everybody else put respect on me
