Mirror mirror on the wall
Can you tell me who the realest?
I heard you're hating on the boy
I got you all up in yo feelings
And I just woke up in Zimbali
I just woke up in Zimbali [x2]
So now you know where to find me

I made it out the hood and out the city
You did the same but you ain't living different
The street's is talking aba o feeli boy
You're starting shit that you will never finish
A ke tsena kasi it's a holiday
The plug is a switch up on some
Purple haze [x2]
A ke tsena kasi it's a holiday
I don't entertain a hater
I am all about the paper
Fuck a favour for a favour
If you owe me money make sure that you pay up (I say)
I don't entertain a hater
I am all about the paper
Fuck a favour for a favour
If you owe me money make sure that you pay up (I say)
You funny rapper should behave, man
Put some respect on the name, man
I could go quiet for years and years
And still come back running the game, man
They telling stories about me
Well I just woke up in Zimbali
Nigga if you got a problem
Then you know where you can find me

Mirror mirror on the wall
