

I Won't Believe This

A Rocket to the Moon

I'm screaming from my window
Like you're the street below
I'm waiting, Oh I'm waiting
I've waited oh so long
Can't we just lay on my roof
And watch the stars above our heads
This plan is oh so full-proof
'Cause you'll be mine once again
Oh you'll be mine once again
Second day hurts more than the first one
I can't pretend anymore
The nights are feeling so long
And I am all alone
Oh you'll be mine once again
I can't believe this
I won't believe this
Seconds of waiting
You have been waiting
Now you are leaving
No I won't believe this
Oh I won't believe this
