

Misery

A Static Lullaby

Take a look around don't you see it?
See that you are the only real face in the room
No one here has a clue what you're feeling
Don't feel bad keep your sadness alive
Look at all these happy people
Living their lives
Look at all these plastic people
Theres nothing inside
Look at all these shallow people
Telling their lies
Look at all these empty people, people

Don't you know, misery was haunting me
Yeah I heard, misery was looking for me
Happiness, a place you don't if you know me
Yeah I heard, misery was looking for me
Woah, misery's my company
Woah, misery is looking for me
Looking for me
The hands are up
Everybody's singing, everybody's moving they're putting their feelings
They're synchronizing, and criticizing
Don't feel bad keep your sadness alive
Look a all these happy people
Living their lives
Look at all these plastic people
They're dying inside
Look at all these shallow people
Telling their lies
Look at all these empty people,people

Don't you know, misery was haunting me
Yeah I heard, was looking for me
Happiness a place you don't if you know me
Yeah I heard, misery was looking for me
Woah, misery's my company
Woah, misery is looking for me
Don't you know this misery loves me
This misery loves me
Don't you know this misery loves me
Don't you know this misery loves me
So you're tired of running
You're tired of hurting
You're tired of living in their light
You're tired of loosing
You're tired of hurting
Keep your sadness alive, alive
Don't know, misery with company
Yeah I heard, was looking for me
Happiness, a place you don't if you know me
Yeah I heard, misery was looking for me
Don't you know, misery was still with me
Yeah I heard, misery was looking for me
Happiness, a place you don't if you know me
Yeah I heard, misery was looking for me
Woah, misery my company
