

Distant

A Taste Of Honey

Sitting around thinking about you
Trying to convince myself that you're thinking about me too
But I know better and it's the truth that I fear
'Cause if you really loved me, honey, I know that you'd be here

Distant
(Distant, distant is your love)
Oh, baby
Your love is distant
(Don't take your love so far away)
Distant
(Distant, distant is your love)
Oh, baby
Your love is distant
(Don't take your love so far away)

I cannot believe what you're doing to me
You've got me down on my bended knees
You make love like a heavenly ray
Each and every time boy that you call my name

Distant
(Distant, distant is your love)
Oh, baby
Your love is distant
(Don't take your love so far away)
You're distant
(Distant, distant is your love)
Oh, baby
Your love is distant
(Don't take your love so far away)

Just a passion word from you can make my whole day worthwhile
Can't you see, sugar baby, you're the reason for my smile
Like the snow capped mountains that are in view
Oh honey baby, distant are you

Distant
(Distant, distant is your love)
Oh, baby
Your love is distant
(Don't take your love so far away)
You're distant
(Distant, distant is your love)
Oh, baby
Your love is distant
(Don't take your love so far away)

You're distant
(Distant, distant is your love)
Oh, baby
Your love is distant
(Don't take your love so far away)
You're distant
(Distant, distant is your love)
You're distant
(Don't take your love so far away)

Hey baby, your love is distant
(Distant, distant is your love)
You're distant
(Don't take your love so far away)
