

Be Something More

A-Wall

Don't let yourself go be something more
Don't let yourself go be something more
Don't let yourself go be something more
Don't let yourself go be something more
Don't let yourself go be something more
Don't let yourself go be something more
Don't let yourself go be something more
Don't let yourself go be something more

I'm running a blank
The bigger they are
The bigger they ain't
You can't trust fall
Man they ain't got the strength
I'm scribbling hope in my little black book
Bleu is the name
I'm here take a look
Two made the game
But three made the books
Plus three more
We like Michelin cooks
With the stickiest hooks
I'm in yo mind rent free
Like the city was took
And the landlords booked it
This ain't no bluff shit
Straight from the soul
I've been ready for action
This real life shit
Got no time for re-enactments
Gotta hit the bricks
Cus they lurking where the stash is
Be Something More
I ain't going out of fashion
I'm 10 years ahead
Already planning my downfall
If you tried to clown me
Not hanging around y'all
On to the next one
How that sound y'all

Ayo my front lawn made of four leaf clovers
Hopped this border sippin' on Jarrito soda
Hug my culture, find myself as I get older
Young and sober, late nights gettin colder, huh?
Drive west til we hit the mountains
Testing the speed of sound
At least we got our souls in balance
Peace to the bad vibes
Broke but onto fixing it
Don't stick to the bad side
Broadcast the silver lining
We don't ever capsize
We don't ever cap SHIT
Bachelor, I'm a scientist
I don't get allowance I allow my bags to get thicc
Pre-COVID, I been sick

Cookin' cops I like my bacon fresher than the air in the tropics
Toxic? I don't wanna talk then
So be it cause you stallin' anyway, hey

Don't let yourself go be something more
Don't let yourself go be something more
Don't let yourself go be something more
Don't let yourself go be something more
Don't let yourself go be something more
Don't let yourself go be something more
Don't let yourself go be something more
Don't let yourself go be something more

Kinda weird to think about
All the things that came before and everything that will after
Been getting black eyes ever since I saw Casper
Envisioning my culture more of a thing I gotta capture
Gotta lose the weight when I'm hopping on the track uh
If I had a dollar for every comment shit I'd have a rack huh
Looking at the past is some scars I gotta unpack uh
Trynna get my parents back their rings that they had sold
All to get us meals at a price they could afford
Still I'm very Scrutinized
Minimized
Something that I recognize
Vocalize
And mechanize
Living in the time
Cause its always being compromised
Had a last call
With the people
You know you know you know

Yeah
One two one two
Let's get it
Let's go
Aye aye aye aye
Aye aye aye aye
Welcome to my metamorphosis
Switched the gear a couple shifts
Never taking life for granted
That's a promise not a wish
And I put that on my bloodline
Primavera sunshine
They be lookin for the front line
And I just tell em tell em
Welcome to my metamorphosis
Switched the gear a couple shifts
Never taking life for granted
That's a promise not a wish
And I put that on my bloodline
Primavera sunshine
They be lookin for the front line
And I just tell em tell em
Welcome to my
Aye
Brand new brand new yeah
They been waiting on you yeah
They been waiting on change shit
I been waiting since June yeah
I can tell how the waves switch

I can tell by the moon
Still holding the city down yeah
Just me and my goons
Yeah brand new star
Brand new cash
Brand new car
Brand new streets gon' take me far
Brand so setting so bizarre
'Cause this that Walter White
Spider bite
Neo coming back to life
Yeah I'm still the same nothing changed but this my mothafuckin'
Metamorphosis bitch
Yeah
I said welcome to my metamorphosis bitch
