A-Wall

Another early morning sunrise
And girl you know I've been up all night baby I can't lie
I just need some sunshine
The more I drink the more I waste time gotta go chase life
Early morning sunrise
And girl you know I've been up all night baby I can't lie
I just need some sunshine
The more I drink the more I waste time gotta go chase life

Alright let's get it
Who am I kidding
Stuck at my linnin'
Phone still ringing
Put it on [?]
Five more minutes five more minutes five more minutes
I need a break
I need escape
I need some money to come 'round my way
I need a lot of material things
I need a cause I don't wanna wait another day
Another day
Another day (damn)
Another day (it's all the same it's all the same)

Another early morning sunrise
And girl you know I've been up all night baby I can't lie
I just need some sunshine
The more I drink the more I waste time gotta go chase life
Early morning sunrise (sunrise)
And girl you know I've been up all night baby I can't lie
I just need some sunshine (sunshine)
The more I drink the more I waste time gotta go chase life
Yeah
(Yeah, oh, let's go, hey)
