

Figure It Out

A-Wall

I'm screaming, I'm shouting
I'm on the verge of crying and you hear me
Now I'm begging, for you forget
Cause you were never 'posed to see me like this

But I can't lie to you I'm so stressed out
And I've been trying hard to figure it out
I'm loosing balance, tipping over now
Somebody catch me cause I'm falling down

Now you down on the ground
Now you round after round
No, don't look at me now
Please don't look at me now
Got me spinning around
Got my hair falling out
Cause I'm so stressed out
Yeah I'm so stressed out

Mind your business
Hide your feelings
They don't need to know about it
Tell em' nothing
Keep on running
Do your best and hold it all in
Take a breath and puff your chest
And don't you dare to ask for no help
Wipe your tears there's people here
You'll handle everything by yourself
Waking up, so tired
Everyday so dire
Yeah I'm standing in a fire
Yeah I'm hanging by a wire
I'll explain it, no go
Keep it straight, don't fold
I've been feeling so alone
I'm about to explode

I'm screaming I'm shouting
I'm on the verge of crying and you hear me
Now I'm begging, for you to forget
Cause you were never 'posed to see me like this

But I can't lie to you I'm so stressed out (Oh Yeah)
And I've been trying hard to figure it out
I'm loosing balance, tipping over now
Somebody catch me cause I'm falling down

Now you down on the ground
Now you round after round
No don't look at me now
Please don't look at me now
Got me spinning around
Got my hair falling out
Cause I'm so stressed out
Yeah I'm so stressed out

Yeah I'm so good at fucking up my life
I second guess myself like every time
Yeah this mess I made is no one else but mines
But don't you worry baby I'll be fine (Yeah, Let's go)

But I can't lie to you I'm so stressed out
I'm loosing balance, tipping over now
Somebody catch me cause I'm falling down

Now you down on the ground
Now you round after round
No don't look at me now
Please don't look at me now
Got me spinning around
Got my hair falling out
Cause I'm so stressed out
Yeah I'm so stressed out
