

Fired Up!

A-Wall

(Yeah yeah)
I'm too I'm too fired up
I'm too I'm too high above
If you want it try your luck then come on
(Yeah yeah)
I'm too I'm too fired up
I'm too I'm too high above
If you want it try your luck then come on
Come on come on
Come on come on
Come on come on
Yeah baby come on
Come on come on
Come on come on
Come on come on
(Yeah yeah yeah yeah)

Lose my shit for my ride or dies
Bring it's own demise and the sober lies
Speak out
To all of my brothers that been helping me out
Since before times I could barely eat out
Hope that they know they can always reach out (Shi)
Diaz been gone for a while (shit)
Riding the Tahoe up for them miles (shit)
Shoutout Ricky make me proud (huh)

You're hanging on to nostalgia
Turn the music up louder
Make the family prouder
Get a taste of that power
I ain't fucking with cowards

Quisiera saber como decirte cuando cambiaste mi vida
No estaría en este camino sin ti

(Yeah yeah)
I'm too I'm too fired up
I'm too I'm too high above
If you want it try your luck then come on
(Yeah yeah)
I'm too I'm too fired up
I'm too I'm too high above
If you want it try your luck then come on
Come on come on
Come on come on
Come on come on
Yeah baby come on
Come on come on
Come on come on
Come on come on
(Yeah yeah yeah yeah)

The last I saw of you!
Was skid marks on the pavement cause I couldn't muster an apology To save me
, guess I loved my ego more than future babies
The last I thought of you!

Uh woah, was livin gold, no cocaine nose but could feel your dose, Know I'm the only one that couldn't escape your ropes
We love easily
Like turning up cause fun is free
Lend my two feet to the beats tempo
Babe let my hands know where they can go
"Promise I'm here for a good time"
Ces ne le pa la vie, asi no es la vida!
On up for the down, this road rocky as hell
And I'll still love how your body makes cells

Siempre te veía como un hermano
No se por qué no te puedo llamar para decirte cuanto me has Impactado
Solo quiero decirte que...
Cambiaste mi vida para siempre
Y siempre vas a estar en mi corazón
Quisiera saber cómo decirte
