

Free Fall

A-Wall

Please just call me
'Cause I'll be lonely
And I'll be waiting
For the moment
That I can see ya
Promise me love
You won't forget
Free I'm falling
Final moments
And on the way down
I am lonely
Heart is aching
I promise baby
I won't forget

Finally falling
Angels calling
Grant my wishes
And count my winnings
Call me selfish
But I can't help it
I might lose myself-self-self-self-self

Holdup wait I'm not ready
Way too young to die already
Take the wheel
My palms sweaty
Spread my wings and fall steady
Yeah we're still fine
Yeah there's still time
You could still glide
You could survive
Don't ask me where I'm going
I don't know it
And I'm just trying not to blow it
I could smell the fire smoking
I could feel my engine slowing
Yeah we're still fine
Yeah there's still time
You could still glide
You could survive

Because I'm finally falling
Angels calling
Grant my wishes
And count my winnings
Call me selfish
But I can't help it
I might lose myself-self-self-self-self
