

Solo

A-Wall

Say what you need
If you want, I can leave
Makes no difference to me
I don't blame you

Or get the fuck out my face
I don't have much to say
Know you can't get away
I don't blame you

And when I'm stuck in my cell
I just talk to myself
Know I made my own hell
I don't blame you

Go 'head and say what you need
If you want I can leave
Makes no difference to me
I don't blame you

I'm solo yeah
I'm solo yeah
I'm solo yeah
I'm solo
All my life been solo yeah
I'm solo yeah
I'm solo yeah
I'm solo yeah
Aye yeah

Hand on the wheel
Foot on the gas
All out of time
I done burned all my cash
I'm back on my grind
Yeah I'm back in my bag
If I'm not in first
Then I feel like I'm last
Notice how nobody's laughing now
Yeah this not a phase it's a passion now
I followed my dreams and I'm cashing out
Still feel like it might just come crashing down
Damn
There I go
I need that second guess antidote
Yeah I need an ounce of that indigo
Shit I need a check what my horoscope
Say now
I'm off that amethyst
She like boy you better manifest
Look at my life
How you not impressed?
Shit I just hope my name gon' stand the test

Say what you need

I don't blame you
I don't blame you
And when I'm stuck in my cell
I don't blame you
I don't blame you

I'm solo yeah
I'm solo yeah
I'm solo yeah
I'm solo
All my life been solo yeah
I'm solo yeah
I'm solo yeah
I'm solo yeah
Aye yeah
