

Storm Chasing

A-Wall

Know I been away storm chasing
Called you back to tell you that I made it
Everywhere I look new faces
Everywhere I look new faces
But I can't seem to figure how they know me
Labels only calling for the old me
And I can't fuck with fake shit that's below me
That's probably why I'm always feeling lonely

Light start to bleed through
Finally I can see you
And I can't see my future but I can tell that I'm gon' need you
Laser vision lethal
Watch me thread the needle
Yeah I can't wait to shine so I can tell all of my people
That's honest
I promise
My word is my prophet
My work gon' reap profits
I fixed up my compass
And my conscious is floating
My drink way to potent
Crash landing
Yeah I'm still standing
Know I had to gotta make a whole scene before I vanished
Know I got the hometown team advantage
Know I had to go off last spring and speak Spanish
CHROMA show'd me how to write
Fuck that CHROMA helped me find my light
Fuck that them my brothers set for life
Fuck that Primavera til I die
Put that on that dotted line

Know I been away storm chasing
Called you back to tell you that I made it
Everywhere I look new faces
Everywhere I look new faces
But I can't seem to figure how they know me
Labels only calling for the old me
And I can't fuck with fake shit that's below me
That's probably why I'm always feeling lonely

I took some light scars
Spinning bright stars
Overhead I got some light stars
This a nice car
Made a record need a moon man
I'm a new man
They forget I'm only human
And I been losing
I paid my dues and now I'm chasing
Trail blazing
I ran with Dev' a couple races
Now he's famous
I ran the check up from my basement
New arrangements
I never paid for any placements

Fuck a playlist
Don't try to ask me how my day been
Trail blazing
I ran with Dev' a couple races
Now he's famous
I ran the check up from my basement
New arrangements
I never paid for any placements
Fuck a playlist
I'm running through the storm chasing

Know I been away storm chasing
Called you back to tell you that I made it
Everywhere I look new faces
Everywhere I look new faces
But I can't seem to figure how they know me
Labels only calling for the old me
And I can't fuck with fake shit that's below me
That's probably why I'm always feeling lonely
