

Summer Luv

A-Wall

Sun bathing
I'm waiting for a lady
To be my summer baby
And drive me real crazy in love
I'm ready
Been standing in the rain
Wanna dance with you baby
And take you all the way this summer

(Summer love, summer love)
My summer love
(Summer love, summer love)
My summer love
(Summer love, summer love)
My summer love
Oh oh oh oh
(Summer love, summer love)
My summer love
(Summer love, summer love)
My summer love
(Summer love, summer love)
My summer love
Oh oh oh oh

Well that it's about that time again
I got alotta things I gotta get off my chest
I got alotta stress making it harder it to grin
And life been whooping my ass, so I'm doing my best
But I been waiting for the fall through spring to end
Yeah I been waiting all year for the perfect time
Honey girl this really where our story begins
'Cause I'm about to tell you how much you been on my mind
See I was thinking
Baby just thinking
I can get 'ya phone down
We can get to ringing
Call you on the weekend
Swimming in the deep-end
Know we just friends now
But we don't gotta pretend
Yeah I'll be

Sun bathing
I'm waiting for a lady
To be my summer baby
And drive me real crazy in love
I'm ready
Been standing in the rain
Wanna dance with you baby
And take you all the way this summer

(Summer love, summer love)
My summer love
(Summer love, summer love)
My summer love
(Summer love, summer love)
My summer love

Oh oh oh oh
(Summer love, summer love)
My summer love
(Summer love, summer love)
My summer love
(Summer love, summer love)
My summer love
Oh oh oh oh

Lost in my life
I rather be lost in your eyes
It's lookin' like a beautiful night
All I really need is you by my side
Summer love got me catching sun rays
Go ahead I can do this all day
Sorry baby, but I don't mean no shade
I can tell you can feel this heat wave
Am I right? Am I wrong?
To think we, could be more
Than just friends, you be my
Summer love, every night
Every night

Sun bathing
I'm waiting for a lady
To be my summer baby
And drive me real crazy in love
I'm ready
Been standing in the rain
Wanna dance with you baby
And take you all the way this summer

(Summer love, summer love)
My summer love
(Summer love, summer love)
My summer love
(Summer love, summer love)
My summer love
Oh oh oh oh
