

The Wall Of You

A Whisper in the Noise

all of the fear that I seed in me all of the most basic needs of me all of the dreams I have that won't come true pale at the sight of the wall of you I feel like hanging on to you all the time
I feel like hanging on to you all the time I feel like letting go will break my heart
I feel like hanging on to you for a time... forever more.
