Down On The Floor

I'm down on the floor, there's a man at the door He won't let me in 'cause he thinks he's the law He'll give me a shout when he's figured it out Gotta pick myself up, what am I waiting for? It's never enough, yeah it's never too late I reminded myself that I'm starting again You're telling me "never", it should be "whenever"

And when the world is swinging, I feel like I don't fit in Don't even know the way, don't hear a word they say And all the money making, I just want to have a go, I'm always up on time Why can't I be just like the people that I know?

I've got what it takes, I'm bang up to date You know how it is, I'm all over the place Kicked in the face, I'm backstage, everyone here is half of my age Standing in line, I'm hitching a ride I'll give it a try but I don't have the time You're telling me "never", it should be "whenever"

And when the world is swinging, I feel like I don't fit in Don't even know the way, don't hear a word they say And all the money making, I just want to have a go, I'm always up on time Why can't I be just like the people that I know?
