

I'll Take the Tears

A1

Don't speak, seal your lips, please don't say a word maybe I won't remember the words I have not heard I see that you're in love, I know it's not with me but I don't want the truth to haunt my memory

It's never too late to relight the fire it never stopped burning for me the flame, it never died inside of me

How is it now that I can tell you I love you How is it only now that it's too late What can I do, the love that we had is torn in two so you take the smiles from all of our years and I'll take the tears

I sit and reminisce, of times that we once shared you gave me more than love but never thought I cared my feelings were all for you although it didn't show I only told you the day you let me go

It's never too late to relight the fire
it never stopped burning for me
The flame, it never died inside of me

How is it now that I can tell you, I love you How is it only now that it's too late
so you take the smiles from all of our years and I'll take the tears

Now I realise that your not mine but I'm hoping the pain will ease in time although your leaving, I won't say goodbye because I know your here with me inside

How is it now that I can tell you i love you
how is it only now that it's too late
What can I do the love that we had is torn in two
so you take the smiles from all of our years
and I 'll take the tears
