Just Three Words

No more drama
I'm going under
With your face so full of thunder
Lay it on me Evidently
There's an elephant in the room

Can't think straight I can't go on
It's hit me hard but I can't give up
Speak to me cause it's killing me

You can change my world
Just say the line
With just three words
You'd save my life

When it comes down
To the wire
One spark can start a fire
So come on now
Let it out
Before my heart goes tick tick boom

Can't think straight I can't go on
It's hit me hard but I can't give up
Speak to me cause it's killing me

Think about how eleven letters
Mean the world when they're put together
They can change our lives forever
Say them now cause it's now or never
