

Mango Tree

Aaradhna

I dwell in places that's only mine
Only meant for just me oh
I got a fire that burns in me
But still waters run deep oh

A melody sung from the Mango Tree
A swarm of bees humming in harmony
A mango blooms, honey drips down the leaves
And off into an ocean of ecstasy

God of Love
Let it rain down on me
God of Love
Let it rain down on me

Hidden away, hidden from your eyes
My dreams oh
Red rubies flowing through golden lines
All over me oh

A melody sung from the Mango Tree
A swarm of bees humming in harmony
A mango blooms, honey drips down the leaves
And off into an ocean of ecstasy

God of Love
Let it rain down on me
God of Love
Let it rain down on me

Precious Love
Send me your love
Make it sweet
Send it to me
Precious Love
Send me your love
Make it sweet
Send it to me

God of Love (A melody sung from the Mango Tree)
Let it rain down on me (A swarm of bees humming in harmony)
God of Love (A mango blooms, honey drips down the leaves)
Let it rain down on me (And off into an ocean of ecstasy)

A melody
Run deep
