

She

Aaradhna

Ancestors surround me so I'm never alone

I flow with the wind
I live by the moon
Wonder through the dark only trust a few
Why would I want to follow you?
Mother's in my eyes
Bobas in my pride
And I would put up a damn good fight
I would die before I let you take mine
Take mine

Straight from her Mother
A pearl from the waters
Bred by the ocean a home with no borders
Hair just like feathers
Pulled by the heavens
Amene
Walks like her Father
Tall like Arjuna
Silently moves with a heart full of fire
Like a sunstick burning in the dead of the night
Amene

A grand design
Everything on time
Everything on purpose
Everything will fall in line
She so divine
Level on high so when you come around me increase your incline
A sweet delight
Easy on the eyes
Heavy on the mind
She just like red wine
She is who she thinks she is
That's exactly her and that's right!

Straight from her Mother
Bred by the ocean a home with no borders
Hair just like feathers
Pulled by the heavens
Amene
Walks like her Father
Tall like Arjuna
Silently moves with a heart full of fire
Like a sunstick burning in the dead of the night
Amene

Give me strength like Nafanua
Hit you with my nifo oti bring the roaring thunder
And the Earth will shake and rattle like the king cobra
And the skies will open up and fall over
The start and end like Kali Maa
The bringer and the taker
She'll have you fall down to your knees

Straight from her Mother
Amene
Amene
