

Warrior

Aaradhna

I'll fight for you, yeah, I'll be your warrior
I'll keep you safe, yeah, I'll be your savior
I'll watch over you, I'll be your protector
And if you ask me to, yeah, I'll die for you

Hey baby, whatever she did to you
Let me wipe them away
Wipe those bad memories away
You're with me now
There's no need to be afraid
Cause from you I'll never stray
Those silly games I'll never play
This is what I do for you

I'll fight for you, yeah, I'll be your warrior (I'll be your warrior)

Feeling like you can't trust no one at all
Baby, here's my heart you can depend on me
Rely on me
You've been kicked around, even though
You're already down on the ground
No, no, no, you don't deserve that
Baby, I got your back
I'll bodyguard your heart
