There's a war in my head with my demons (Wit' my demons)
Tryna stay strong with some positive thinking (Stay up)
Evil's out to get me, tell the devil stay scheming
Tell 'em haters sneak dissing I'ma leave 'em leaking (Pop, pop)
There's a war in my head with my demons (Wit' my demons)
Tryna stay strong with some positive thinking (Stay up)
Evil's out to get me, tell the devil stay scheming (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
Tell 'em haters sneak dissing I'ma leave 'em leaking (Pop, pop)

If you entertain a clown, you become part of the circus (The circus)
Get rich or die tryin', man, I grew up to Curtis (50)
There's a lot of broken souls on this road out to hurt us

Tryna give me life advice and tell me just how to live
But when it comes to the pressure, you know it's hard to comprehend
So I keep one rolled for them long-ass nights
I pull myself together just to keep my mind right (Keep your mind right)
I keep that thing on me like I play Fortnite (Pop-pop-pop)
I came a long way from dropping Xans in a Sprite

Life is rough enough and all I do is show love (Yeah)
I used to keep my emotions balled up in a glove
I overcame my demons, this is what I dreamed of
But don't get it twisted, my life is a twister
I wish heaven had phones so I could call my sister
Takin' all these selfies with my niece to send a picture
I'm tryna roll with God and I'm livin' by the scripture
They say the devil want my soul, I told him "no deal" (No deal)
Family over everything, I'm tryna rebuild (Rebuild)
Iron sharpens iron, real recognizes real (Real)
They don't make the pills for the pain that I feel
