

It's taken some years trying to find me
 Long road but it ain't concrete
 I made some mistakes that still haunt me
 Damage control been my undercover hobby
 My pride running marathons at a high speed
 Uh, got me praying on my knees
 Tryna keep my past behind me
 But in my heart I wanna say their ain't rapper taking my seat, yeah
 I almost lost it all before I even got it
 It all go back to being honest
 I was more worried bout takin' shorty to sonic
 Driving down forest lane never been as toxic
 Reading scriptures painting vivid pictures
 Relating to stories guess I found a lot of hidden figures
 I ain't David... but you get the kicker
 Been in my head so the wins don't make me think that I'm a winner
 Cause that don't last long
 Therapy been slowing down a lot fastballs
 I know God preparing me for the blast off
 The devil only prowl when u a threat I'm going mad far, uh

So I thank God
 I'm tryna hold my hood up like I'm Trayvon
 Been fresh way before I hit grade nine
 Did a lot of don'ts so far as dues yea I paid mine, yeah
 It all go back to being honest
 And not a profit not how I can be the biggest artist
 I'm the biggest already because I'm Bristols finest, uh, right look
 Remember Kirk dapped me up before I hit the stage
 Honestly that meant more than my lil fame
 Had an artist say when he win he'll switch me for my js
 I should ask him now if he still wanna trade, yeah
 I mean I'm still amazed
 I still can't believe that the feelings fade
 I felt on top of the world with just a lil taste
 But honestly I'm the most happy when I'm in VA, yeah
 Wit' my fam 'em
 They asking for the old Cole, well I am him
 I'm tryna walk up to my pops and give em ten mil'
 That still ain't enough for all the time that he been real
 I can't even lie they telling me to pick aside
 They saying sing then I sing, they ask me where the lines
 Industry not what I thought so I'm bout to slide
 Crazy younger me thought it was really all about God
 They just want me kissing up to these shady folk, umm
 It's bout the ratings tho
 If I change lives who care about the radio
 I'm tryna give the folks my heart till I'm 84, right till I'm 84, 84

I'm tryna tell 'em 'bout heavenly joy
 I know grace is real cause he ain't gave up on the boy

Tryna tell 'em 'bout a heavenly joy
 I know grace is real cause he ain't gave up on the boy
 Till I'm 84

Ooh-oh, I know grace is really you

He ain't even giving up on the boy, on the boy
I'm trying to tell him 'bout Him, the heavenly joy
I swore, he ain't ever giving up on the boy
