

Choose You

Aaron Cole

22

I'm already up in my zone

Mrs. Cole

Put my Mrs. in Michael Kors

And they eyes closed, I done dropped like a hunnid songs

But if You ain't sold, what's the point of me going gold?

Rather lose it all

Know that You the only one that need to see me

'Cause the way You showing love, they couldn't repeat it

Know You standing right beside me

Every time we link, I listen to You, it's an audi

Love You 'cause You loved me first

Choose You when I don't deserve

You stayed with me, You the only one that last

You got what I need, I ain't never going back

I ain't tryna reminisce on anything I had

You know that, You know that

'Cause I

If I win without You, do I even want the prize?

Seen a lot of finer things in this life

I choose You, I choose You

Swear it's nobody else that do it like You

Hold me together singing, what would I do?

What would I do? What would I do?

I choose You, I choose You

Swear it's nobody else that do it like You

Hold me together singing, what would I do?

What would I do? What would I do?

(Can't give it up, don't give it up, oh yeah

Can't give it up, don't give it up, oh yeah)

I choose

(Can't give it up, don't give it up, oh yeah

(Can't give it up, don't give it up, oh yeah) I choose

The streams I'm gettin' now used to be a daydream

Numbers going up, but they can never change me

I got plaques on my wall, but they can never frame me

All of this because I'm focused on the mainstream

I can choose fame but it won't last long

(Last long)

I can try to carry this weight but I'm not that strong

So I'm choosing You 'cause I know that You're perfect

Choosing You, You're the one, no more searching

If I win without You, do I even want the prize?

Seen a lot of finer things in this life

I choose You, I choose You

Swear it's nobody else that do it like You

Hold me together singing, what would I do?

What would I do? What would I do?

I choose You, I choose You
Swear it's nobody else that do it like You
Hold me together singing, what would I do?
What would I do? What would I do?

(Can't give it up, don't give it up, oh yeah
Can't give it up, don't give it up, oh yeah)
I choose
(Can't give it up, don't give it up, oh yeah
Can't give it up, don't give it up, oh yeah) Yeah

I choose You
(Can't give it up, don't give it up, oh yeah)
Choose You
(Can't give it up, don't give it up, oh yeah)
I choose
(Can't give it up, don't give it up, oh yeah
Can't give it up, don't give it up, oh yeah)

I choose You, I choose You
Swear it's nobody else that do it like You
Hold me together singing, what would I do?
What would I do? What would I do?

I choose You, I choose You
Swear it's nobody else that do it like You
Hold me together singing, what would I do?
What would I do? What would I do?
