Just say focused, man
Even in the midst of this, man
Patience is the greatest tool we have in this time
And, man, like, I know that, you know, time is unforgiving
Time waits on no one, but at the same time
When we get patient on the right moves at the right time
Things come together... better
So just be patient bro

Yea
I feel, I feel, I feel like the greatest
Can't explain this favor, it's amazing
Cut off anybody out here fakin'
You can cut me off too, but I will never be forsaken

I been tryna get it, I been on a mission
If you ever doubted get it together
If you thought that little jab was gonna knock me out
Boy, you gotta do better
Going my full potential
I'm like Travis Green, I'm intentional
My coaches always told me it's not about all the talent', it's about the men tal
Look, I would write rhymes in my classroom
My teacher always thought I would be the last dude
But 4 years later, boy what do you know?
I graduated with a 4 to the 0
Pops had two jobs to make sure that I would eat cut hair on the side had J's on my feet
Mom's babysitted, we was chilling at the crib
Going over rhymes I was laying in my crib

You know I can't quit when you tell me to
All things working for my good so winnings what I'm gonna do
Greater is he that is in me you know that I'm down to ride
By any means necessary, yeah I'm just that kind of guy

I feel, I feel, I feel like the greatest
Can't explain this favor, it's amazing
Cut off anybody out here fakin'
You can cut me off too, but I will never be forsaken

I had lunch with my ex and it was messing with the inner me
Then I knew God really prepares a table in front of my enemies
You ain't gotta worry I'ma work Mic and Kobe was the greatest and they wasn't picked first
Time waits for no man and I tell em that's fine
Cause all of that is silence to a guy who made time, yeah
It's the kid from Virginia with an underbite
Let's keep it honest with these rappers killing all the hype
They think I'm so craze
We ain't cared about lyrics since the myspace days
I don't even care what I go through
I'ma make it out boy don't move
An L is a thing that I won't do
I'ma eat it up like soul food yeah yeah yeah

You know I can't quit when you tell me to
All things working for my good so winnings what I'm gonna do
Greater is he that is in me you know that I'm down to ride
By any means necessary, yeah I'm just that kind of guy

(I feel, I feel, I feel like the greatest
Can't explain this favor, it's amazing
Cut off anybody out here fakin'
You can cut me off too, but I will never be forsaken)
