

Hands

Aaron Cole

I been looking around
And I been waiting for the sun in a cover of clouds
When I'm waiting on You
I may not see what's up ahead, but I know that You do
And You're leading me through

You control what's next
So I'll take my steps
With my heart at rest, I am Yours
And I won't give up
'Cause I trust Your love
And we've been through enough, so I'm sure

In Your hands, yeah
I will always be
In Your hands
You're holding my destiny
In Your hands, yeah
I'm trusting Your plans for me
And though it gets hard sometimes, I believe
That I am home in Your hands
Whoa, whoa
I'm home in Your hands
Whoa, whoa

Like the joy in the morning
Or that feeling that you get when you're finally home
And You can let it all go
I trust what I don't see
But I know I'm Your child and You never stop caring 'bout me
And You know what I need

You control what's next
So I'll take my steps
With my heart at rest, I am Yours

In Your hands, yeah
I will always be
In Your hands
I know You're holding my destiny
In Your hands, yeah
I'm trusting Your plans for me
And though it gets hard sometimes, I believe
That I am home in Your hands
Whoa, whoa
I'm home in Your hands

And I'll trade my plans for Yours any day
Put my life in Your hands 'cause it's Yours anyway
And I'll trade my plans for Yours any day
Put my life in Your hands 'cause it's Yours

In Your hands, yeah (In Your hands)
I will always be (Yeah)
In Your hands (In Your hands)
I know You're holding my destiny (Destiny)

In Your hands, yeah
I'm trusting Your plans for me
I'm always home in Your hands

Whoa, whoa
I'm home in Your hands
Whoa, whoa
I'm home in Your hands
Whoa, whoa
That I am home in Your hands
