Aaron Cole

Everybody is becoming something
We're all becoming what we behold
Everybody wants to find their purpose
Everybody wants something more

Cuz if I'm gonna be more of anything
I just wanna be more like You
If I'm gonna be more of anything
I just wanna be more like You
If I'm giving my all to anything
I'm giving my all to You
If I'm gonna be more of anything
I just wanna be more like
More like You

Everybody's gonna worship something
But there's only one name I choose
So, if you're looking for a life to move in Here I am, Lord, I'm making room

If I'm gonna be more of anything
I just wanna be more like You
If I'm gonna be more of anything
I just wanna be more like You
If I'm giving my all to anything
I'm giving my all to You
If I'm gonna be more of anything
I just wanna be more like
More like You

I just wanna be more, just wanna be more like You

I want all the peace, joy, love that You're givin'
I am changed by Your spirit
Peace, joy, love that You're givin'
I am changed by Your spirit
Peace, joy, love that you're givin'
I am changed by Your spirit
Peace, joy, love that you're givin'
I am changed by Your spirit

If I'm gonna be more of anything
I just wanna be more like You
If I'm gonna be more of anything
I just wanna be more like You
If I'm giving my all to anything
I'm giving my all to You
If I'm gonna be more, more
I wanna be more, I wanna be more like You
(Peace, joy, love that You're givin')
(Peace, joy, love that You're givin')
Wanna be more like You
