

OMARI

Aaron Cole

Just opened my eyes
Ya mama said it's a run on sentence
I'm not surprised
When I saw that test I had no words I almost cried
I just told ya grandpops and all he could do was smile
It ain't really hit me yet I know it's gon take some time
I'm scared as ever if I'm honest but I'll survive
Ya grandma said don't call her grandma call her mimi
If they talk down on your name I promise you they gon have to see me
Was few I thought would be ya aunts and uncles buts that's okay
But one thing that I know God work in mysterious ways
I been counting down the days
To hold ya hand and hold you close and see ya face
We just saw ya sonogram my heart couldn't help but race
Racing
The doctor said you good and healthy cause we been praying
I ain't gon be the perfect dad but long as you know I'm trying
It's a cold world but I got you no matter the climate
Mari

Baby boy don't you cry it's gonna be okay
Things won't always be perfect but you gotta have faith
No matter how far you run or the road that you take
When it's all said and done at the end of the day
I'm gonna love you anyway

EJ just called and told me don't take this for granted
Him, ya grandpops and uncle Chet high key the standard
I'll teach you there's more than life than you driving a fantom
All that matters is your relationship with God and ya family
You ain't even here yet and I already got some questions
Got me confused on how some dads just get to steppin
Me and you gon hit the toy store on a streak
And when mama gon we gon sneak to Chuckie Cheese
I pray you better than me
I got some habits the world can't see
I pray you always keep God first in lows and peaks
I can't wait for your first cut the fade gon be elite
Can't wait to see ya style I'll keep the J's on your feet
I ain't gon lie I'm kind of glad I didn't explore
You ain't gon have to go house to house wondering who love you more
Wondering if you gotta stand up for your moms when it comes to me
I promise you nobody love yo mom more than AC
One thing you can take from me is get out here and get your dreams
I just got back from tour ya baby shower the end of the week
Thank God I put in all this work so we can live like kings
But I'd work at mc-kie d's just to make sure that you eat

Baby boy don't you cry it's gonna be okay
Things won't always be perfect but you gotta have faith
No matter how far you run or the road that you take
When it's all said and done at the end of the day
I'm gonna love you anyway s

I pray the broken family curse don't fall on me and E
So you can see how family really pose to be
I know u gon make mistakes

As long as you get back up
Sometimes you gon feel stuck
But lean on faith not luck
If you do the hard things now ya life gonbe much easier
I know you gon fly but chill on the social media
Never know where life gon take you sometimes got you on the run
But I'll be right here with open arms you'll always be my son

Mari
