

Refuge

Aaron Cole

Yeah, seem like it's always something
Yeah, weapons formed against me so I'm always duckin'
Yeah, I'm always runnin'
Look, they want a smile but I ain't good at frontin'
Yeah, look, try to keep my mind right but I got all these thoughts
Yeah, battling wit' my demons and they got no remorse
Feel like my life just need to chill 'cause it be doing the most
Feel like the world been laughing at me and I don't get the joke, yeah

Tryna shift my focus
Know I can't control it
Tellin' me keep goin'
Don't know where I'm goin', whoa, whoa
Pray to God, please cover me
And this is what He told to me

I feel your pain
I see the rain comin'
I'll be your strength
You not in danger
You can fall ten floors down, I'll still catch you
Lean on me, I'll be your refuge

I feel your pain
I see the rain comin'
I'll be your strength
You not in danger
You can fall ten floors down, I'll still catch you
Lean on me, I'll be your refuge

Look, I'm in a disarray
I'm losin' homies to the industry, some to the grave
Yeah, only thing I can do is pray
A lot of wins but it's gettin' hard to celebrate
Yeah, like how I'm 'posed to be happy when they just keep on shootin'?
Yeah, how I'm 'posed to trust the law when they don't know what they doin'?
The only way that I deal wit' it is I just keep on movin'
Yeah, say You gon' come through, the only one can do it

Oh, tryna shift my focus
Know I can't control it
Tellin' me keep goin'
Don't know where I'm goin', whoa, whoa
Pray to God, please cover me
And this is what He told to me

I feel your pain
I see the rain comin'
I'll be your strength
You not in danger
You can fall ten floors down, I'll still catch you
Lean on me, I'll be your refuge

I feel your pain
I see the rain comin'
I'll be your strength
You not in danger

You can fall ten floors down, I'll still catch you
Lean on me, I'll be your refuge

I'll be your refuge
I'll be your refuge
I'll be your refuge
I'll be your refuge
You can lean on me
You can lean on me, yeah-yeah, yeah-yeah
