

Only In My Mind

Aaron Lewis

I don't mean to sound desperate
Lord knows that it would be easier to walk away
Than to stay
The old me wouldn't let this misery
Fill me up, get inside
Need to hear you tell me I'm a better man
But here I am

Holding on
I'm hanging by a thread
Even though
I can't let go
Of these voices in my head
Telling me I'm wrong
Telling me to run
But I keep holding on
Even only if it's in my mind
Even only if it's in my mind

What's the point of saving this
If I'm the only lonely one who's wanting this
But I can't quit

Holding on
I'm hanging by a thread
Even though
I can't let go
Of these voices in my head
I'm telling me I'm wrong
I'm telling me to run
But I keep holding on
Even only if it's in my mind
Even only if it's in my mind

I don't know why

I keep holding on
I'm hanging by a thread
Even though
I can't let go
Of these voices in my head
Telling me I'm wrong
Telling me to run
But I keep holding on
Even only if it's in my mind
Even only if it's in my mind
Even only if it's in my mind
Even only if it's in my mind
Even only if it's in my mind
