

Someone

Aaron Lewis

I'm damaged goods, I'm complicated
I sure do know how to tell a lie
Some people say I ain't worth savin'
Sometimes, I think they're right

It ain't no secret, I can say it
I get it wrong most of the time
But lookin' at you right now, baby
You're the one thing I got right

'Cause someone else would've walked away
Someone else would've never stayed
Sure as hell, someone else would've left me
A long, long time ago, oh
Someone else would've called my bluff
Sayin' I ain't even worth their love
No one else could've loved me like you do
Thank God my someone's you

I wasn't perfect, you were patient
I didn't know what you were waitin' for
I swear I must have found an angel
Sent from Heaven's door

'Cause someone else would've walked away
Someone else would've never stayed
Sure as hell, someone else would've left me
A long, long time ago, oh
Someone else would've called my bluff
Sayin' I ain't even worth their love
No one else could've loved me like you do
Thank God my someone's you

I'm damaged goods, I'm complicated
I sure do know how to tell a lie

Someone else would've walked away
Someone else would've never stayed
Sure as hell, someone else would've left me
A long, long time ago, oh
Someone else would've called my bluff
Sayin' I ain't even worth their love
No one else could've loved me like you do
Thank God my someone's you

Thank God my someone's you
