

Unloving You

Aaron Lines

I could tear down every picture
Put my fist through the wall
Burn every letter
Just make ashes of it all

Man I could learn to settle
For less than what we had
Give someone else my body
But you've got all the love I had

And I can't take it back
And I can't let it go
It's more than words and cold hard facts
It's a fire you left in my soul
I can say I don't want you
Convince my head it's true
But I know in my heart
There's no unloving you

If I'd only known
There'd every come this day
I'd never had said hello
I'd have just turned and walked away

And I wouldn't be here
Begging for another chance
I'd never know what love was
And how it feels when it slips through your hands

Cause I can't take it back
And I can't let it go
It's more than words and cold hard facts
It's a fire you left in my soul
I can say I don't want you
Convince my head it's true
But I know in my heart
There's no unloving you

Oh I can't take it back
And I can't let it go
It's more than words and cold hard facts
It's a fire you left in my soul
I can say I don't want you
Convince my head it's true
But I know in my heart
There's no unloving you

Yeah I know in my heart
There's no unloving you
