

HIDDEN VOICES

Aaron May

Yeah

Feel like the world watching my steps, asking me where I'm goin g

Tell you the truth, when I get the question, I don't know what to say

If I don't do nun', Imma roll up and smoke one everyday I ain't tryna think 'bout they thoughts, I just wanna make my w ay

Nowadays it's easier to understand why I'm always on my own Feelings always change, I ain't into new things, I don't wanna feel

Seen your true colors like you got a mood ring, you ain't gotta tell me

Ain't too easy going, knowin you've been through things, but ai n't got no healing

Whole 'lotta voices hidden

Whole 'lotta pain inside my heart, 'lotta fucked up decisions Niggas wouldn't wanna go to where I started to get in this posi tion

It ain't even over yet I'm still stayin' down, gotta handle bus iness

I just got a call potna finna need bond, I'm just waitin' to se nd it

Know he trippin'

Sometimes can't turn your wrongs to rights

I'm still ridin' for my ones

We gon' make it home tonight

That's just how it is where I'm from These type of losses part of life

Used to dealing with it as it come but Lately it's been a lot to fight

Lately it's been a lot to watch for know some people moving out of spite

And I can't blame them, I got fam only thinking get back for th e pain, I can't change 'em

As a man you supposed stand up and stay the same when shit get dangerous

It's a, little hard to explain it when I know they don't speak my language

I just wanted changes, I ain't wanna be famous

Me and mine just wanna lane switch

Ridin' 'round in them Ranges

Over time, start losin' patience

Tell my why they been waitin'

Tell my why they been waitin'

g
