

One For Me

Aaron May

Yeah, yeah, yeah
I don't want nobody else
I just want to be a kid
But I hate being all alone
But there's reasons why I'm by myself
And I know you see me as a tyke
But I know you know I'm still your type
And I hate playing on the phone
But I love talkin' in the night
I'm too fucking young
And girl I can't say you're the one for me
You're the one, you're the one, You're the (aye)
I'm too fucking young
And girl I can't say you're the one for me
You're the one, You're the one, You're the one (Yeah, Yeah, Yeah)

Okay I'm passin' time
In a higher class, upper echelon
Mastermind, things been movin' fast
And you last in line
I left all that pain in the past, it ain't catchin' on Fuck the games, I gave you a chance, but you arrogant
See, I do better myself
I want you but it's like you bad for my health
It ain't your fault, I knew better myself
Let me better my wealth, get a plaque on my shelf
Myself, can't stand your defiance, I hate the silence
You done had the chance after chance, I ain't lyin
But you must have some bad timing
Cause now I don't feel like trying
To keep it alive
When it's meant to die
Then baby I ain't gon' stop it
Why you stressin' me
Why the fuck you testin' me
Comin' back to light when you see how this life been blessin' me
And you know how I feel I swear that you so used to gettin' me
But when you come around I just can't let you get the best of me

I wish I could get that time that I spent with you
Hate how you left me behind, I was missin' you
Now days I don't even cry, I don't mention you
It seem like you doin fine so I'm distant too
I wish I could get that time that I spent with you
Hate how you left me behind, I was missin' you
Now days I don't even cry, I don't mention you
It seem like you doin fine so I'm distant too

I don't want nobody else
I just want to be a kid
But I hate being all alone
But there's reasons why I'm by myself
And I know you see me as a tyke
But I know you know I'm still your type
And I hate playing on the phone
But I love talkin' in the night
I'm too fucking young (I'm too young)

And girl I can't say you're the one for me
You're the one, you're the one, you're the one
I'm too fucking young (I'm too young)
And girl I can't say you're the one for me
You're the one, you're the one, you're the one (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
