

Come Over

Aaron Pritchett

It's late, it's starting to rain
It's going to be morning
Before it ends
It's cold and I'm alone
You just left, but you're still in my head

Your probably home by now
Oh, but turn around
Please, turn around

And I'll wait at the door
Dying for more of you, more of you
And I, I'll kiss the rain
Off your face pull you inside
And then we'll hide, under the covers
Baby, come over, baby, come over

Just wear one of my shirts
When you leave for work tomorrow
But don't, tell me you can't
I'll have to spend the night alone
There's nothing that I won't do
If you say you will, please, say you will

And I'll wait at the door
Dying for more of you, more of you
And I, I'll kiss the rain
Off your face pull you inside
And then we'll hide, under the covers
Baby, come over, baby, come over

And I, I'll kiss the rain
Off your face pull you inside
And then we'll hide, under the covers
Baby, come over, baby, come over
