

Not Enough You

Aaron Pritchett

I've had enough of this Tennessee sun beating down on me and
No shade, short changed, from a country mile long week
And I've had enough time to think about what I'm gonna do and I've had 'bout enough of everything else

But not enough you, I been missing
Your sweet kiss hitting my lips
Kicking off our shoes, and George Strait singing
All week waiting on this
Girl, it's your love I'm always wanting more of

Like a fire can't burn enough fuel
Like the sky can't have enough blue
Like a needle can't get enough groove
Girl, for me there's not enough you

It don't take but one day till my heart starts wondering where you been and These hands asking when they're gonna hold you again

'Cause there's not enough you, I been missing
Your sweet kiss hitting my lips
Kicking off our shoes, and George Strait singing
All week waiting on this
Girl, it's your love I'm always wanting more of

Like a fire can't burn enough fuel
Like the sky can't have enough blue
Like a needle can't get enough groove
Girl, for me there's not enough you

There's no such thing as too much
Your smile, your touch
The way you move, everything you do
Can't come a second too soon

There's not enough you, I been missing
Your sweet kiss hitting my lips
Kicking off our shoes, some George Strait singing
All week waiting on this
Girl, it's your love I'm always wanting more of

There's not enough you, I been missing
Your sweet kiss hitting my lips
Kicking off our shoes, some George Strait singing
All week waiting on this
Girl, it's your love I'm always wanting more of

Like a fire can't burn enough fuel
Like the sky can't have enough blue
Like a needle can't get enough groove
Girl, for me there's not enough you
