

Where We'll Go from Here

Aaron Pritchett

Your first steps seemed like only yesterday
Walking in your shoes for the very first time
Talkin' with words only you could understand
Ain't it crazy how time flies?

I remember all the rise and falls along the way
That made me who I am today
Ready to face my fears
And I know life doesn't come with a guarantee
As bright as the future may be
It still seems so unclear
And only God knows
Where we'll go from here

The first day of school I cried, I didn't wanna go
Now I shed a tear because it's gone
As I turn the page and start a new chapter of my life
I keep my friends and memories close
As I break through and ride

I remember all the rise and falls along the way
That made me who I am today
Ready to face my fears
And I know life doesn't come with a guarantee
As bright as the future may be
It still seems so unclear
And only God knows
(Only God knows)
Where we'll go from here

Even though we drove in different lanes
We always end up in the same place
Like we haven't missed a year
So where do we go from here?
Where do we go from here?

I remember every rise and fall along the way
That made me who I am today
Ready to face my fears
Yeah, and I know life doesn't come with a guarantee
As bright as the future may be
It still seems so unclear
And only God knows
Only God knows
Where we'll go from here
Yeah only God knows
Only God knows
Where we'll go from here
Where we'll go from here

Your first steps seemed like only yesterday
Walking in your shoes for the very first time
