

Jerusalem

Aaron Shust

We pray for the peace
We pray for the peace of Jerusalem
For the sake of our brothers and friends
We now say, "Shalom be within you"

We pray for the peace
We pray for the peace of Jerusalem
For the sake of the House of the Lord
We seek your good

We pray for the peace
We pray for the peace of Jerusalem
For the sake of our brothers and friends
We now say, "Shalom be within you"

We pray for the peace
We pray for the peace of Jerusalem
For the sake of the House of the Lord
We seek your good

So may the Guardian of Israel arise
May His chariots of fire fill the skies
To protect you from every evil and keep your lives
We cry, "How long, O Lord, how long?"

So may the Guardian of Israel arise
May His chariots of fire fill the skies
To protect you from every evil and keep your lives
We cry, "How long, O Lord, how long?"

We pray for the peace
We pray for the peace of Jerusalem
For the sake of our brothers and friends
We say, "Shalom"
