

The Name Of Jesus

Aaron Shust

At the name of Jesus every knee will bow
And every tongue confess Him the King of Glory now
It's the Father's pleasure that we should call Him Lord
Who from the beginning was the mighty Word
Glory to the Lord on high
Glory to the Son who came to earth to die
Glory to the Spirit who lifts the name on high:
The Name of Jesus, The Name of Jesus
At His voice creation sprang at once to sight
All the angel faces and all the host of light
Thrones and dominations, stars upon their way
All the heavenly order, in their great array
They sang In Your hearts enthrone Him; there let Him subdue
All that is not holy, all that is not true
Crown Him as Your Captain, in temptation's hour
Let His will enthrall You, in its light and power
Behind the Song: "There was a point in time when every creature gave "glory" - or positive attention - and credit to God as the supreme, loving, perfect Being. Can you fathom billions upon billions of angels with perfect voices singing and shouting glory to the very name of Jesus? Glory to the Lord on High! Glory to His Son, who came to earth to die for mankind's insurrection! Glory to the Spirit, who points all human hearts and minds toward the powerful and majestic name of Jesus! While all of heaven is currently and constantly giving praise and worth to God, I don't do it often enough, and there are probably millions of people who have never bothered to give any credit to the God of the Universe. Yet one day, every knee will bow and recognize that He is God. One day, every tongue will confess that He is the King of Glory." - Aaron Shust
