

Doubts

Aaron Smith

She got doubts in the back of her mind
She knows, yeah, she knows
What I can be like
'Cause I've been lying awake at night
Awake at night
Still got your picture
I got your lipstick stain on my wall
From that night before my heart
My heart became yours

I've been trying to make things right but God knows
Yeah, God knows we're out of time
'Cause I've been drowning inside white lines
It don't feel right
Still got your picture
I got your lipstick stain on my wall
Praying you're sleeping safe
Though I'm not there to watch you fall

Ooh
'Cause we can make this is we try
Ooh
'Cause I'll be waiting by your side
To dry your eyes, to dry your eyes
To dry your eyes, to dry your eyes

Lay your fears down
Lay your fears down next to mine
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh

'Cause she got doubts in the back of her mind
Yeah, she knows, yeah, she knows
What I can be like
'Cause I've been drowning in emptiness
In emptiness
'Cause we had our problems
But I don't deserve you anymore
I pray that you'll be okay knowing that I'm not there to call

Ooh
'Cause we can make this is we try
Ooh
'Cause I'll be waiting by your side
To dry your eyes, to dry your eyes, woah
To dry your eyes, to dry your eyes

Lay your fears down
Lay your fears down next to mine
