

Nocturnal

Aaron Smith

Caught in blame
Why did I lie to you
And I hide away
'Cause I couldn't cry to you

See there's words in my ways
That I'm dying to say
You can shout so loud
I can't work it out
And the hole in my head
Screams a holy regret
Of an empty vow
Still I don't know how

Turning nocturnal
(Am I overthinking it?
I'm overthinking it)
Spinning in circles again
(Am I overthinking it?
I'm overthinking it)
Shut out the light now
Can't look at myself now
'Cause I'm on rain cloud
Turning nocturnal
Turning nocturnal

Caught in flames
Never could speak the truth
Tried to erase
Only myself to prove

See there's words in my ways
That I'm dying to say
You can shout so loud
I can't work it out
And the hole in my head
Screams a holy regret
Of an empty vow
Still I don't know how

I'm always hoping your door's always open
I'm always hoping you're hoping

I'm turning nocturnal
(Am I overthinking it?
I'm overthinking it)
Spinning in circles again
(Am I overthinking it?
I'm overthinking it)
Shut out the light now
Can't look at myself now
'Cause I'm on rain cloud

The hardest part of a world that's dark is you
My heart starts when you swing the stars, it's you

Turning nocturnal

(Am I overthinking it?
I'm overthinking it)
Spinning in circles again
(Am I overthinking it?
I'm overthinking it)
Shut out the light now
Can't look at myself now
'Cause I'm on rain cloud
